

Tim Prater - the best choice for our new Councillor

Cheriton residents will elect a new Councillor on Thursday. The race is between well known local campaigner Tim Prater, or the Conservative candidate. No other party can win on Thursday.

Tim has already got action for local residents across the Cheriton area on a wide range of issues - Tim knows how to get things done.

As our Councillor Tim will stand up for all residents regardless of party politics. Tim will put local people first.

● Local Lib Dem campaigners Peter Carroll, Tim Prater and Councillor Peter Gane work hard for local people all year round.

“I will fight to get more police on patrol in our streets to crack down on crime and anti-social behaviour”

“I will work hard to get our area cleaned up and get problems sorted. I will fight to improve Cheriton.”

Help make Tim our new Councillor on Thursday

Getting local action for local people

Many people have contacted Tim Prater in the last few weeks asking for help with problems in their road.

Tim and the Lib Dem team have been quick to help, and amongst others have fought to clean up fences and hedges near Star Lane, sorted damage to a roundabout on Broadview, fighting for replacement swings near Stanley Road and much more.

Tim gets things done for local people.

● Tim Prater is working to get the swings replaced in the park between Weymouth and Stanley Road.

Action to tackle problems NOW not later

When the Council tried to introduce rises to parking charges across the district Tim did not wait for them to happen - he organised a petition and took it straight to the Council, helping to force them into a U-turn.

Action was promised for years to stop lorries parking near Tesco, but Tim helped local residents stage a protest by parking their cars in the layby that seems to have already decreased the amount of lorries parking there.

Tim won't sit back and wait - he will take action for local people quickly.

● Councillor Peter Gane and local campaigner Tim Prater inspect the success of their "Truck Off" campaign, asking lorry drivers to park somewhere other than the layby.

A Councillor you can trust and rely on

This by-election was caused by the Conservative Councillor for Cheriton not turning up to a single meeting for six months.

Tim Prater will be a hardworking Councillor, and is giving Cheriton residents three guarantees:

- To never miss a Council Meeting without good reason
- To report back to local residents regularly to keep you updated on his work
- To publish his contact details so local people know how to get in touch by phone, email and post.

● Tim Prater works hard for Cheriton all year round. He will be a strong voice for local people as our new Councillor.

It's a Two Horse Race!

Local residents are being asked to choose a new Town Councillor for our area on Thursday.

Local Lib Dem campaigner Tim Prater looks set for a close finish against the Conservative candidate.

With three other smaller parties standing, every vote will count.

Local Cheriton Councillor Peter Gane said; "Voting for Go Folkestone, People First or the anti-war candidate just helps the Conservatives win."

"The Lib Dems are the only Party in our area who have a chance of beating the Tories on Thursday."

"Tim is a really hardworking local campaigner and I think he will be a great Councillor for our area."

"Just remember on Thursday that it's either Tim or the Conservative - no other result is possible."
