Hard working local campaigner Emily Sanger is best choice to be our new town Councillor on Thursday.
Emily has lived in Folkestone all her life and is an active member of our local community. She is also a Governor at a local school.

If elected to be our new Councillor, Emily Sanger will work closely with popular Lib Dem District Councillor Tessa Caruana to get the best for local people from the Council.

Emily said, "It would be a real honour to stand up for Harbour residents on the Town Council. I pledge to work hard to get the best deal for local residents of all ages from the Council."

Campaigning for local people

Emily Sanger - working for you

More and more people are saying that they will be backing Emily Sanger to be our new local Councillor on Thursday.

Emily is a hard working local campaigner who has lived in Folkestone all her life and is a Governor at a local school.

Priorities for Emily include -

- Helping bring more investment and jobs to our town - she will press to get our long awaited town centre redevelopment started.
- Improving local facilities in our town for young and old alike.
- Getting action to tackle crime and anti-social behaviour in our area.
- Keeping our town clean and tidy - we want a Folkestone that local people can be proud of.
