LIBERAL DEMOCRATS

BY-ELECTION RESULT SPECIAL EDITION: MAY 2008

THANK YOU!

In a sensational result, Liberal Democrat Season Prater has won the Sandgate Valley by-election with an incredible 58% of the vote.

Season is thanking residents of Sandgate Valley after the result showed a huge surge in support for the Liberal Democrats.

The result in full was:

■ Liberal Democrat Season Prater	174
■ Conservative	76
■ Independent	48

Season said:

"I'm really grateful to all local residents for the fantastic support they have shown over the last few weeks.

"We have achieved a remarkable 35% increase in our vote since May last year in Sandgate Valley.

"Local residents have really shown there is little support locally for Sandgate's new 'Town' status and even less for any spending on our new 'Mayor' of Sandgate. I have promised to speak up against any extra spending on this, and will do so.

"I will continue to fight for a fair deal of local residents on Council tax.

"And I will continue to work for Sandgate Valley, and will listen to local residents and keep in touch throughout the year."

Enbrook Valley Bin Success

Season Prater has convinced Shepway Council to take action on overflowing residents bins for flats above the shops in Golden Valley.

The Council have pledged to try to get another residents bin, and have put stickers on the existing bins explaining they are for residents waste only.

Season says:

"These bins are regularly full to overflowing, and another bin will be a real help. If we can stop rubbish being left outside the bins, the whole look of the area will improve."
